Dr. Erica Mongé-Greer

Biblical Scholar • Author • Speaker

EricaMG.com

Signature topics

Difficult Scripture and Honest Faith

How do we wrestle honestly with troubling biblical passages without abandoning faith, compassion, or intellectual integrity?

The Bible and Political Power

What do biblical texts reveal about justice, responsibility, leadership, and the ethical use of power in times of social tension and uncertainty?

Women Who Lead in Scripture

What becomes visible when we read biblical women as consequential actors rather than supporting characters?

Faith Beyond Easy Answers

What do lament and wisdom offer when suffering disrupts familiar explanations of God?

Why Myth Matters

How does misunderstanding myth distort our reading of the Bible and diminish its theological power?

How Stories Shape Belief

How do sacred stories shape identity, ethics, belonging, and the way communities understand themselves and the world around them?

Speaking formats

- Keynote Presentations
- Church Retreats & Weekend Events
- Adult Education Workshops
- Conference Sessions & Panels
- Guided Discussion Facilitation
- Online Teaching & Virtual Events

Dr. Erica Mongé-Greer is a biblical scholar, author, and experienced educator specializing in ethics, power, resistance, and moral imagination.

She brings more than a decade of university and church teaching to conversations that unite scholarly depth, accessible communication, and thoughtful Christian engagement.

Publications

Divine Council, Ethics, & Resistance in Psalm 82 (Pickwick Publications, 2023)

So Say We All: Religion, Spirituality, & the Divine in Battlestar Galactica (Cascade Books, 2022)

Behavioral Economics in the Book of Ruth (Lexham Press, forthcoming)

Is the Bible Myth? (Baker Academic, forthcoming 2028)

Ancient wisdom. Contemporary questions.

Speaking • Workshops • Consulting

EricaMG.com

erica@ericamg.com